Reviewing the PIR Results for Program Planning

A One-Hour Webinar

September 14, 2012
2 p.m. ET / 1 p.m. CT /
Noon MT / 11 a.m. PT

The PIR is loaded with information that could and should be used to help modify and fine tune Head Start and Early Head Start program service plans.

This webinar is designed to lead participants through the sections of their own PIR to point out data and accompanying analysis that may be used for program planning. During this training, we will focus on four elements and provide simple analysis techniques. These areas are:

- Family needs
- Health/Dental/Nutrition/Mental Health challenges
- Ethnic and language issues
- Educational and work situation as reported by PIR data

Learning Outcomes

- Participants will understand how to evaluate and use information about family needs as represented by PIR results.
- Participants will learn how to analyze information about health, mental health, nutrition and dental challenges as represented by the PIR results.
- Participants will receive information about ethnic and language issues as represented in the PIR data.
- Participants will learn simple analysis techniques to use and conclusion generation techniques to take from PIR data for program planning

Training Technique

This training will be presented using Adobe Connect and requires that you have access to the Internet, computer speakers, and Adobe Flash Player Version 10.1 or greater to attend this web conference.
