

Boom in Your Zoom: Creating Virtual Workshops for Head Start Staff

A Virtual Training December 2-3, 2020

Creating a New Normal – As the Head Start community responds to the Covid19 epidemic, our work with children, families, and staff adapts and adjusts. These unprecedented circumstances pivot our usual normal toward new formats and venues. And since professional development is key in preparing staff for this new normal, the team at TTAS/WKU has developed a seminar on the basics of effective virtual training for Head Start staff. We hope you can join us in this timely opportunity!

Who Should Participate? A perfect professional development venue for Managers, Supervisors, and other program leaders responsible for pre-service workshops, regular workshops, or those stretching their training skills.

Intimate! Open to only 30 participants.

Your Presenters

Luis Hernandez, T/TAS Early Childhood Education Specialist, holds an M.A. in Bilingual/Multicultural Education from the University of San Francisco. Luis brings solid expertise to his position based on his work history in Head Start, child care, Pre-K programs, college and universities, child care resource and referral administration, and professional development design. Luis' work focuses on a wide range of early childhood education and professional development topics. His expertise includes early literacy, dual language learning, adult learning practices, changing demographics and diversity, and ECE management and partnership topics. As a regular presenter and keynote speaker at international, national, state, and local conferences, Luis is highly regarded for his motivational and energizing presentations.

Sherri Meyer, Early Childhood Education Specialist, has worked in many capacities in the early childhood field since 1992. She has a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education with a Middle School Math Endorsement and a Master of Arts in Education in Interdisciplinary Early Childhood Education birth to age 5. Both of her degrees were earned at Western Kentucky University. She has worked with children of all ages from birth to school age in child care, Early Head Start, and Head Start. Sherri has much experience working with early care and education professionals in providing training and technical assistance both in Kentucky and around the country. She continues to enjoy being an adjunct professor for Family and Consumer Science Department at WKU working with individuals who are interested in the early childhood field. She enjoys spending time at the beach, spending time with her family, and doing projects around her home.

(T/TAS reserves the right to substitute presenters.)
