

Renew Your Understanding of Infant & Toddler Development

A Self-Paced Virtual Training Course
February 20 - June 30, 2023

Training Your Way

Come join T/TAS and your EHS colleagues for this self-paced virtual training experience designed to address your interests and encourage reflection and networking. All materials and activities will be available for access February 20, 2023 through June 30, 2023.

This 15-hour Early Head Start online training offers teachers, home visitors, and supervisors the opportunity to enhance their child development understanding and to gain new ideas. Content is also appropriate for infant and toddler staff working for programs other than EHS.

Training Topics

- Understanding Pre-Natal Development
- Infant-Toddler Development
- Managing Behaviors in the Infant-Toddler Classroom
- Health, Safety, and Nutrition
- Relationships with Families.

Training Techniques

This is a self-paced virtual training, and all instructions and materials will be available via online access. Training techniques will include the review of meaningful resources including articles, videos, audio clips, web sites, and PowerPoint presentations. Interactive exchanges in the online discussion room will enrich the learning and encourage networking. Practical training assignments will allow each participant to practice skills.

Learning Outcomes by Topics

- ★ Understanding Pre-Natal Development: Participants will recognize the importance of health and well-being of the expectant family on pre-natal development.
- ★ Infant-Toddler Development: Participants will examine the overall development of infants and toddlers, review developmental milestones, and examine developmentally appropriate practices.
- ★ Managing Behaviors in the Infant-Toddler Classroom: Participants will explore the behaviors of infants and toddlers and examine strategies for working appropriately with children and families.
- ★ Health, Safety, and Nutrition: Participants will identify best practices to be used in Early Head Start classrooms in the areas of health, safety, and nutrition.
- ★ Relationships with Families: Participants will investigate strategies for enhancing relationships with families, including expectant families and families with children aged from birth to three years.

Quotes from previous enrollees

"thank you for the positive experience and for the knowledge you provided."

"I loved all the resources given in this training."

Meet the Staff Development Requirements of the Head Start Act

Participants must finish all training activities by training-end date to receive verification from T/TAS of their 15 clock hours of training. Section 648A of the Improving Head Start for School Readiness Act addresses staff qualifications and development and requires that every Early Head Start teacher attend no fewer than 15 hours of professional development per year. The Act states that such professional development should be "...high quality, sustained, intensive, and classroom-focused in order to have a positive and lasting impact on classroom instruction and the teacher's performance in the classroom."

Meet CDA Renewal Requirements

Earn 1.5 Continuing Education Units (CEUs) to help keep your CDA current. Participants must finish all training activities by the training end date and file the required paperwork to receive CEU credit.

The Renew Your Understanding training meets the following subject areas and hours:

- 3 Hours of CDA Subject Area 1 - Planning a safe and healthy learning environment.
- 3 Hours of CDA Subject Area 2 - Advancing children's physical and intellectual development.
